four young men with bright futures ignoring all logic choose to postpone the pursuit of advanced degrees and corporate jobs to discover what it means to truly live through first person accounts of their yearlong expedition around the globe they share their exciting tales from near death escapes to race riots despite the thrill of the journey these four men tell readers that their real adventure is in learning what it means to live completely for christ a revised and expanded comprehensive guide to the novels of native american author louise erdrich from love medicine to the painted drum includes chronologies genealogical charts complete dictionary of characters map and geographical details about settings and a glossary of all the ojibwe words and phrases used in the novels provided by publisher a strange and compelling unkillable woman decides to leave home and the story begins fleur pillager takes her mother s name four souls for strength and walks from her ojibwe reservation to the cities of minneapolis and saint paul she is seeking restitution from and revenge on the lumber baron who has stripped her reservation but revenge is never simple and she quickly finds her intentions complicated by her own dangerous compassion for the man who wronged her the two narrators of four souls are from utterly different worlds nanapush a smart man and a fool is both fleur s savior and her conscience he tells fleur s story and tells his own he would like a calm and discriminating love with his sweetheart margaret he is old and would like to face death with his love beside him instead the two find themselves battling out their last years when the childhood nemesis of nanapush appears and casts his eye toward margaret nanapush acts out an absurd revenge of his own and nearly ends up destroying everything the other narrator polly elizabeth gheen is a pretentious and vulnerable upper crust fringe element a hanger on in a wealthy minneapolis family a woman aware of her precarious hold on those around her to her own great surprise the entrance of fleur pillager into her household and her life effects a transformation she could never have predicted in the world of interconnected novels by louise erdrich four souls is most closely linked to tracks all these works continue and elaborate the intricate story of life on a reservation peopled by saints and false saints heroes and sinners clever fools and tenacious women four souls reminds us of the deep spirituality and the ordinary humanity of this world and is as beautiful and lyrical as anything louise erdrich has written nationhood and improvised belief in american fiction highlights the ways religious belief and practice intersect with questions of national belonging in the work of major contemporary writers through readings of novels by louise erdrich toni morrison cristina garcía and others this book argues that the representations of syncretic culturally hybrid and improvised forms of religious practice operate in these novels as critiques of exclusionary constructions of national identity providing models for alternate ways of belonging based on shared religious beliefs and practices rather than treating the religious history of the u s as one of increasing secularization this book instead calls for greater attention to the diversity of religious experience in the u s as well as a deeper understanding of the ways in which these experiences can inform relationships to the national community a leading american aikido teacher shows how this 20th century martial art developed from the ancient spiritual traditions of japan not as a fighting method but rather as a means of becoming one with the laws of universal order
